

MEMBER OF THE STATE ASSEMBLY, 72ND DISTRICT

NAME: JOHN MACMURRAY

OCCUPATION: Public School Teacher

How much more do we have to take?

Thanks to former Assemblymember Mike Duvall, we have no Assembly representative in Sacramento, Orange County has been mocked on national television, and California taxpayers will have to shell out nearly half a million dollars for a special election.

My name is John MacMurray, the Democratic candidate in this special election. I ran against Mike Duvall in 2008 and nearly beat him. Thanks to our many talented volunteers and voters of different parties who accepted our challenge to "Bring Back Responsible Government" we won in Anaheim, La Habra, and Orange; we came close in Brea, Fullerton, Placentia, and Yorba Linda.

Having our elected officials turn their backs on the people they promised to serve is not the only problem we need to solve.

Public K-12 education pays back seven dollars for every dollar invested, but some politicians slash all the money they can from it.

Southern Californians used to have good jobs and supported their families building cars, airplanes, and even spacecraft. Those jobs are gone and we need replacements.

We all have the right to breathe clean air, drink clean water, and raise our families in safety and some comfort. Yet some politicians slash budgets for parks and any environmental enforcement.

As your representative in Sacramento I will make sure that your government is responsible to you, and will do everything I can to make sure that all our families have the opportunity to succeed.

I would appreciate your vote.

Thank you.
