

MIMI WALTERSREPUBLICAN

U.S. Representative, 45th District

U.S. Representative Mimi Walters is one of the highest-ranking women in the House of Representatives. Mimi's dedication and background in business, finance and local government makes her one of the most effective.

Walters wrote the Survivors Bill of Rights, signed into law by President Obama, to ensure survivors of sexual assault have access to justice. As a new member of the House Ethics Committee, Mimi Walters protects employees from sexual harassment and abuse.

"We need to keep Mimi Walters in Congress, where she is a key leader for public safety and justice." – Orange County Sheriff Sandra Hutchens

Walters successfully passed the Wildfire Relief Plan, to assist those impacted by the 2017 California Wildfires. Mimi voted for the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act to lower tax rates for nearly every taxpayer. She successfully fought to amend the bill to help California taxpayers. Walters is working to repeal the Gas Tax and Car Tax increases passed by the Legislature and to stop taxpayer funding of the wasteful SF/LA bullet train.

Representative Mimi Walters has earned 100% "A" ratings from the National Federation of Independent Business, the American Library Association, the National Association of Police Organizations and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Prior to her election, Mimi Walters served as a City Councilmember, Mayor and Senator. She is a founder of the California Women's Leadership Association (CWLA) and has served on the Boards of the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO) and the American Cancer Society.
