

MIKE LEVIN
Clean Energy Advocate

DEMOCRATIC
AGE: 39

Orange County Democrats are uniting for Mike Levin for Congress.

Mike Levin, who grew up in South Orange County, is the only Democrat running in this district who lives in Orange County. Mike Levin served as Executive Director of the Democratic Party of Orange County and has been working to turn Orange County blue for over a decade.

Mike Levin is a clean energy advocate working to halt climate change and create good-paying jobs in sustainable energy.

Mike Levin will fight to defend and strengthen the Affordable Care Act and move our nation towards universal health care.

As the grandson of Mexican immigrants, Mike Levin will stand up to President Trump and protect Dreamers from deportation.

Mike Levin is endorsed by the National Organization for Women (NOW) because of his strong support for women's reproductive rights.

The League of Conservation Voters endorses Mike Levin because he will protect our beautiful coast from offshore oil drilling and demand a cleanup of the radioactive waste stored at San Onofre.

Mike Levin is a graduate of Stanford University and Duke Law School. He and his wife, Chrissy, live in San Juan Capistrano and are proud parents of two children, ages 5 and 3.

Congressmember Adam Schiff says: "At this moment of constitutional peril, we need leaders who are committed to an aggressive and impartial pursuit of the truth. I am deeply impressed with Mike Levin's intelligence, determination and temperament. I am proud to endorse Mike Levin for Congress."

For more information, please visit www.mikelevin.org

Mike Levin