

DIANE L. HARKEY

REPUBLICAN

Taxpayer Representative/Businesswoman

Orange County's Diane Harkey fights for us on California's taxpayer appeals board and she will fight for us in Congress. With a lifetime "A" rating from the Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association, we can count on Diane Harkey to always stand up for taxpayers.

Diane Harkey is a champion for small business and has helped hundreds of women-owned businesses overcome adversity and succeed. The National Federation of Independent Business gives Harkey a near-perfect 97% rating over five years.

Her 30-year career in business and finance and public-sector experience gives Harkey first-hand knowledge to be an effective and strong voice in Congress for economic innovation, regulatory reform and job growth.

Economy: Diane Harkey will use her business experience to champion tax and regulatory policies that promote growth, innovation and entrepreneurship.

National Defense: Diane will fight to make sure our nation's defenses are strong and our veterans and active duty families receive the respect and support they deserve.

Health Care: Diane will work for policies that increase choice, reduce costs and allow patients and doctors to decide what care is best. She will fight for children, elderly and improved mental illness care.

The Orange County Republican Party, Congressman Darrell Issa, Congresswoman Mimi Walters and County leaders including Sheriff Sandra Hutchens, Supervisors Lisa Bartlett, Andrew Do, Michelle Steel, councilmembers, local and state law enforcement endorse Diane Harkey.

"Orange County needs a strong voice for public safety in Congress. That's why I endorse Diane Harkey for Congress." -

Sheriff Sandra Hutchens

Visit www.HarkeyforCongress.com

Diane L. Harkey

1180