

DON BARNESAGE: 53

Orange County Undersheriff

Orange County is one of the safest large counties in America thanks in large part to the work of Sheriff Sandra Hutchens and Undersheriff Don Barnes. Sheriff Hutchens is retiring and endorsed Don Barnes to be Orange County's next Sheriff.

"Undersheriff Don Barnes is the candidate I trust to work tirelessly and effectively to keep the citizens of Orange County safe in their homes, neighborhoods, schools and places of business." - Sheriff Sandra Hutchens

Don Barnes has 29 Years of Law Enforcement Experience as Commander, Captain, Lieutenant, and Sergeant for the Orange County Sheriff's Department. He is a graduate of the FBI National Academy.

As Orange County Undersheriff, Don Barnes is second in command of the nation's 5th largest sheriff's department. Barnes helped create the Sheriff's Homeless Outreach Team to mitigate the impacts of homelessness and worked to bolster community policing through the Sheriff's Interfaith Council and Citizens' Academy. Fighting career criminals, gangs, human trafficking and sex offenders are among Don Barnes' highest priorities.

Orange County's Deputy Sheriffs, Elected Officials, Deputy District Attorneys, and 21 local Police Chiefs all endorse Don Barnes. They know Barnes is the tough, innovative and experienced candidate for Sheriff. Visit www.BarnesForSheriff.com to learn more.
