Impartial Analysis City of Laguna Woods Measure V

The City of Laguna Woods does not currently permit marijuana dispensaries, although marijuana delivery services are able to operate within the city in accordance with applicable state law. Marijuana remains illegal under federal law, but California law allows various growing, distribution, and sales business operations, subject to licensing requirements. This advisory measure has been placed on the ballot by the Laguna Woods City Council to seek the voters' input and opinion on whether the Laguna Woods Municipal Code should be changed, and marijuana dispensaries allowed. This advisory measure does not restrict itself to medical marijuana uses, but instead relates to marijuana dispensaries generally. A yes vote expresses the opinion that the Laguna Woods Municipal Code should be changed to allow marijuana dispensaries offering the retail sale of marijuana from as-of-yet unspecified commercial premises in the city; a no vote supports the existing municipal code prohibiting them. The vote is advisory only, and cannot change local, state, or federal law. Under California law, an advisory vote such as this one serves only to express the opinion of the electorate. Its outcome is non-binding on decision makers.
